

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Flashing Lights | New EMS Missions and Equipment Introduced

Banbury, Oxfordshire – 18th June 2019

Flashing Lights, the increasingly popular 10 player multiplayer police, fire and EMS simulator game, today receives a sizeable update – with more content just around the corner.

At 6pm BST/10am PDT today the brand new content update makes its debut, with a limited time 25% off discount to celebrate. The Emergency Services Department update features multiple fresh mission types, while also introducing the fracture kit and bandages to attend to patients with gunshot wounds. Today marks the first step of a two-part EMS update.

Flashing Lights launched in Early Access just over a year ago, and we are excited to unveil more of our year two plans soon.

About Flashing Lights

Flashing Lights is a single-player and multiplayer emergency services simulator focusing on police, firefighters and emergency medical services. Enrolling with one of these departments, players will take on unique missions in an open world. Players will engage in desperate car chases, treat life-threatening injuries, and put out lethal fires. Each department has its own vehicles and equipment for players to utilise.

About the Developer

Flashing Lights is Nils' debut game and is inspired directly by his own passions. Having wanted to play an open world multiplayer emergency simulator with friends, Nils took the idea into his own hands and began working on Flashing Lights in his spare time. Now, having been signed on by Excalibur Games, Nils is working full time to release Flashing Lights in Early Access on 7th June 2018, as part of a team.

About Excalibur Games
