

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Tracks – The Train Set Game Launches Today in Early Access

Banbury, Oxfordshire – 28th September 2017

The delightfully nostalgic toy train builder, Tracks – The Train Set Game, launches today in Early Access. Releasing at a price point of £6.99/$9.99/€10.99, with a 10% launch week discount, Tracks will allow players to build the ultimate wooden train sets and ride them from the cabin. Tracks will release at 09:00 PDT/12:00 EDT/17:00 BST, today, 28th September.

Choosing from various tracks pieces, buildings and decorations, players will use the intuitive track builder and create elaborate train sets in free play mode. While in passenger mode, players will be under more pressure, tasked with organising and maintaining a commuters' system. Transporting certain passengers to certain stations within the time limit becomes quite the task.

Tracks – The Train Set Game will be updated regularly, with new features, cosmetic items, game modes and much more.
